The Plaintiff

INDEX NO: -----
COMPLAINT

-against-

American Export Lines
Atlantic Container Line

The Defendant(s)

1. The Plaintiff is in the business of buying and selling vehicles including campers and operates through the State of New York.
2. The first defendant is upon information and belief a shipping agency based in the State of New Jersey and enjoys customer base from the State of New York.
3. The second defendant is upon information and belief in the business of shipping automobiles internationally including shipping to Africa.
4. Sometimes in 2006, the plaintiff gave the first defendant stocks of vehicles to ship to West Africa. The stocks were shipped by the second defendant.
5. When the stocks arrived in West Africa, the defendants did not inform the consignee nor informed the plaintiff.
6. The plaintiff later learnt of the arrival of the stocks after more than three months through an independent source.
7. By the time the plaintiff learnt of the arrival, the stocks had acquired extra storage charges and some of them were vandalized.
8. By reason of the facts and circumstances stated above, the defendants owed the plaintiff the duty to offer proper services to the plaintiff and to timely inform the plaintiff or the consignee of the arrival of the stocks.
9. By reason of the facts and circumstances stated above, the defendants breached this duty stated in the above paragraph.

10. By reason of the facts and circumstances stated above, the plaintiff has been damaged by the defendants in the sum of $25,000

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants in the sum of $25000 plus interest from May 19, 2006, costs and disbursements and for such further order that the Court deems fit and proper.
